

The Gloucester Project
Inc

Bird & Bees

Workshop about how to choose and grow native and exotic plants to attract birds, bees and other beneficial insects to your garden

When: Thursday 2nd Sept
1- 4pm

Where: Part 1: 1 - 2 pm at 20 Manning Street, Gloucester
Penny Drake-Brockman keen gardener and qualified ornithologist, will explain how to chose particular plants that will attract beneficial birds, animals and insects to your garden

Part 2: 2.45 - 4 pm at the Tucker Garden Patch cnr Fairbairns Rd and The Bucketts Way (turn left into Fairbairns Rd 2nd driveway on left, next to Hillview Herb Farm)
Participants will be guided by Marnie Johnson and Kate Fry on how to propagate native and exotic plants. All materials supplied by TGP

Cost: $15 (non-members)
$10 (TGP members)

Please book either by ringing Jude 02 6558 4452 or on-line www.tuckergardenpatch.com (bookings are essential)